Silver Collection DNA FLY

Like brilliant wisps of cloud, the shining strands of DNA Fly cast myriad reflections with every movement, wrapping your skin in a gentle embrace. They come in the form of multi-strand necklaces or delicate bracelets with designer clasps. The secret lies in a technical process that combines innovation with the culture of jewellery design.

Silver Collection POLVERE DI SOGNI Riflessi

The secret of our Riflessi collection lies in beautiful and cleverly alternating silver etchings and contrasting elements with the Polvere di Sogni coating. The result creates a thousand glimmers of light. The pleasure then comes in putting them together, creating soft multi-strand bracelets that caress the wrist.

Silver Collection POLVERE DI SOGNI Torchon

The Torchon motif is reinterpreted in a new design, as a flowing ribbon that wraps around itself. A Polvere di Sogni coating creates a play of dark and light deceptive to the eye. This sculptural form can be matched with a long , stranded necklace, or transform into eye-catching earrings.
